New Romney Town Council would like to invite all local residents to attend a Public Engagement Event

Now that the New Romney Community Hall and Sports Pavilion Project is reaching a very exciting point in its realisation, local residents are invited to come along to a special engagement event and find out all about this exciting project first hand.

Meet members of the Town Council's Steering Group and Design Team

See the proposed Community Hall and Sports Pavilion design and hear about where the project is at and what happens next

Share your thoughts and leave feedback about what you have seen and heard

Find out about how you can help to support the progress of this project through to completion!
